Explain the reason you are dropping or withdrawing the courses:

Drop Policy for Undergraduate Students Subject to Senate Bill 1231

Under section 51.907 of the Texas Education Code, “an institution of higher education may not permit a student to drop more than six courses after the deadline date, including any course a transfer student has dropped at another institution of higher education.” In other words you can drop only six courses during your entire undergraduate program

1. Students should consult with their academic adviser before making any course changes.
2. The late course drop period starts after the drop period ends and continues to the published late drop deadline.
3. All changes should be done through the student portal in the cams system.
