EMPLOYMENT WHILE ATTENDING THE UNIVERSITY

We encourage students not to let employment, whether at a church or secular institution, adversely affect academic performance, or spiritual and personal well-being. We recommend that a student carrying 15 or more semester hours limit employment to no more than 20 hours per week.

The Office of Student Services and Enrollment Management will receive and post any employment and service opportunities from area churches and businesses on the bulletin board located in the Maciel Student Union area or on the Facebook Student Life group or by email. BEHAVIOR

Student behavior should at all times be in keeping with standards of appropriateness. The University's expectations regarding behavior commence when a student is initially accepted by the University. They apply to the student's conduct wherever the student may be, on or off the campus, when the student is engaged in University-related activities and when the student is not.

DRESS AND APPEARANCE

The evidence of a mature attitude should be demonstrated by the dress and appearance of the student while attending classes or engaging in other academic pursuits about the campus. The student is expected to maintain standards of dress and personal grooming that are appropriate for a Christian academic environment. Specific policies or rules regarding dress and personal grooming are difficult to draft and enforce. For this reason, considerable discretion is given to the Office of Student Services to maintain these standards. Obvious violations of these standards may be subject to disciplinary action. Refusal to comply with reasonable requests will be grounds for disciplinary action.

CHRISTIAN TESTIMONY

Every student is expected to conform to the highest Christian standard of conduct. Students are to obey the law, show respect for properly constituted authority, and observe correct standards of conduct. The following types of behavior are prohibited:

UNSUITABLE LANGUAGE (PROFANITY)

Christians should be known for their distinctive lifestyles. Foul and offensive language has no place in an institution of Christian higher education. Profanity will not be tolerated.

HAZING

“Hazing” means any intentional, knowing or reckless act, occurring on or off the campus of an educational institution, by one person alone or acting with others, directed against a student that endangers the mental or physical health or safety of a student for means of pledging, being initiated into, affiliating with, holding office in or maintaining membership in any organization whose members are or include students at an educational institution. All forms of hazing are prohibited and will not be tolerated.

VANDALISM

Students who deface or damage University property or property other than personal property will be required to pay the full cost of damages and may be subject to disciplinary action. Persons committing acts of vandalism are subject to criminal prosecution.

GOSSIP AND UNTRUTHS

The University family is a community of Christian believers, and there is no place for gossip or falsehoods about others within the community. On the contrary, “whatsoever things are true, whatsoever things are honest, whatsoever things are just, whatsoever things are pure, whatsoever things are lovely, whatsoever things are of good report; if there be any virtue, and if there be any praise, think on these things” Philippians 4:8. The conversations of students, faculty, staff, and administrators should all times reflect the depth of relationship of a follower of Christ.

SEXUAL HARASSMENT

In the matter of sexual harassment, the University will not tolerate misconduct of this nature. Immediate disciplinary action will be taken with respect to anyone discovered to have committed an infraction of this type. Disciplinary action may include dismissal.

What is Sexual Harassment? Sexual harassment shall be defined as unwelcome sexual advances, requests for sexual favors, or other verbal, physical, or visual conduct of a sexual nature directed toward another student or University employee. Sexual harassment includes:

What Laws address Sexual Harassment of Students? Sexual harassment or abuse of students by University employees may constitute discrimination on the basis of sex and is prohibited by Title IX (the federal law prohibiting gender-based discrimination).

What Will the University Do When It Learns of Sexual Harassment of a Student? Any University personnel receiving a report that a student is being sexually harassed or abused will immediately notify the Dean of Student Services, who will investigate and take prompt action to intervene.

What Do I Do If I Have Been Sexually Harassed at the University? The student has 90 days to file a complaint with Student Services. However, the student is encouraged to file a report as soon as possible. This will allow BUA to properly investigate and resolve the accusations. In the event the student does not want to file a formal complaint, confidential counseling services are available. A student with a complaint alleging sexual harassment by another student or an employee may request a conference with the Dean of Student Services and the Title IX coordinator. The conference will convene as soon as possible, but within seven calendar days. Oral complaints should be reduced to writing to assist in the investigation. If a complaint about sexual harassment arises, the process outlined in Section IX: Student Grievance and Appeals Procedures will be followed. A complaint may also be filed separately with the Office of Civil Rights.

VIOLATIONS

Students participating in a violation of conduct standards found under the Christian Testimony section of the Student Handbook may be subject to suspension or expulsion from the University. In these situations, the President or designated representatives have the responsibility to determine when conditions cited above prevail, and they will have the authority to take steps as deemed necessary and reasonable to quell or prevent such disruption.

The Dean of Student Services or the President may take immediate disciplinary action, including suspension, against a student for policy violations if the student's continued presence poses a danger to persons or property is an ongoing threat of disrupting the academic process.

Any student failing to comply with the official and proper order of a designated University official, acting within the scope of his or her employment, will be subject to immediate suspension from the University.

If immediate disciplinary action is taken, the student will be summoned to a conference with the Dean of Student Services who will proceed accordingly.

ACADEMIC INTEGRITY

The University expects the highest degree of integrity from all students in all aspects of their lives. The Student Council developed a Student Honor Code that has been approved by the faculty and administration. Students are expected to abide by the Honor Code.

The University regards the following as illustrations of misconduct by individuals or groups which may result in review by the appropriate disciplinary actions:

Baptist University of the Americas

- Academic cheating or plagiarism.
- Furnishing false information to the University.

THE HONOR CODE

The Honor Code represents the ethical and behavioral standard that the students themselves have chosen. The Honor Code is an outward expression of the inward commitment to the character for which BUA students want to be known. The BUA student body wants to develop a Christ-honoring reputation that will be widely recognizable and joyfully accepted by current students and alumni alike as a referendum on their character. The Honor Code is a covenant that students make with one another, with the school, and with God. It is a sacred pledge to hold each other accountable to become a people whom God has transformed to take the transforming word to the world.

“Before our Lord Jesus Christ, I, as a student of Baptist University of the Americas, pledge to honor God, my fellow students, and my school, with my mind, body and soul by reflecting Christ-likeness in academics and my relationships, committing to the values of integrity, honesty, trust, fairness, respect and responsibility.”

Brief statements below give further explanation of the Honor Code adopted by the student Honor Code Committee:

- We pledge to strive for excellence in academics, to keep our bodies holy and healthy as the temple of the Holy Spirit, and to pursue a growing relationship with Jesus Christ, our Lord.
- We pledge to protect the reputation of BUA and honor the name of Jesus Christ, for we are His witnesses.
- We pledge to be a people of honesty, for honesty is the foundation of academic integrity.
- We pledge to be a people of trust, allowing for free exchange of ideas and academic freedom.
- We pledge to be a people of fairness to insure against discrimination on the basis of gender, age, ethnicity, and disabilities by fellow students, faculty and staff.
- We pledge to be a people of respect for everyone is made in the image of God. Respect among students, faculty, and staff ensures the proper climate for learning and living.
- We pledge to be a people of responsibility, for everyone must hold oneself accountable to God and to others.

The Honor Code ensures academic integrity and will not tolerate academic misconduct. Academic misconduct includes, but is not limited to cheating, plagiarism, stealing, collusion, disrespectful conduct toward fellow students or instructors, inappropriate use of the Internet, and the unethical use of research papers without regard for intellectual property. All copied or paraphrased will be cited, and credit given according to the form a syllabus requires.

Violations of the Student Honor Code

The following steps delineate the procedure to follow for violation of the Student Honor Code:

- The instructor will first confront the student regarding his/her suspicious. The instructor has the authority to fail the student for the assignment, the exam or the class.
- The student may appeal his/her case to the Honor Code Committee by written request. The Honor Code Committee is composed of three appointed members chosen by and from the Student Council.

- Within two weeks of receiving the written request, the Honor Code Committee will hold a hearing with testimony from both the student and the instructor. Each may bring witnesses or any other material pertinent to the hearing.
- The Honor Code Committee will make recommendation in writing to the Dean of Academic Affairs. The Dean of Academic Affairs may investigate further. Within two weeks of receiving the written request, the Dean for Academic Affairs will issue a decision on the case.
- The student or the instructor may appeal in writing to the President of the University. Within two weeks of receiving the written request the President, will issue a decision.

As consequences of violations to the Student Honor Code, the Honor Code Committee may issue recommendations to the Dean of Academic Affairs that may range from reprimands to probationary status, suspension, and/or expulsion according to the seriousness of the violation. The ultimate purpose of the upholding the Honor Code is to live a life that honors God, the Church, one's fellow students, and Baptist University of the Americas.

SUSPENDED OR EXPELLED STUDENTS

Student suspended or expelled from the University for disciplinary reasons forfeit their privilege of living in student housing and will be asked to vacate student housing on the timeline provided. Typically, this will be immediately. A change to non-student status shall not abrogate the requirement that the individual cease residing in student housing as directed (i.e. the disciplined individual will not be allowed to remain in student housing as a dependent, employee, etc.).

DISCIPLINARY RECORD

The University maintains a written disciplinary record for students who have been charged with serious misconduct at the University. The record reflects the nature and disposition of the charge, penalty assessed, and other pertinent information. The disciplinary record is separate from the student's academic record and treated as confidential; the contents will not be revealed except upon request of the student or in accordance with the law. The disciplinary record is normally retained for five years following the student's graduation or withdrawal from the University. Probationary letters may be removed upon written request of the student after terms of the probation have been completed.

STUDENT GRIEVANCE AND APPEALS PROCESS

STUDENT RIGHT TO FILE GRIEVANCES, COMPLAINTS AND APPEALS

University students have the right to file grievances, complaints, and/or appeals regarding disciplinary actions and/or other circumstances related to student life at Baptist University of the Americas. Students are encouraged to address the complaint directly with the person/people involved in the situation if at all possible. However, if the situation is not resolved or if a student wishes to review or file a complaint regarding the action of an individual or an administrative unit (Academic Affairs, Student Services, Development, Administration and Finance, and Executive Office) of the University, the student should direct his/her questions to the person responsible for supervision of the individual or unit. Procedures for specific problems are outlined below.

DISCIPLINE HEARING PROCEDURE – SUSPENDED OR EXPELLED STUDENTS

Accused students subject to suspension or expulsion may appeal the decision to the Dean of Student Services/Enrollment Management to the Disciplinary Committee. The appeal must be submitted in writing within seven days of the disciplinary action. No other disciplinary action may be appealed to the committee.

The Disciplinary Committee will provide the student with a hearing at which the student is afforded due process, to include the following:

- Right to make a record of the hearing at his/her own expense.

The Dean of Student Services may suspend, or impose other appropriate penalty, upon a student who fails without good cause to comply with a letter of notice, or the Dean of Student Services may, at his/her discretion, advise the Disciplinary Committee (the Committee) to proceed with the hearing in the student's absence.

The Committee will render a written decision as to the accused student's guilt or innocence of the charges and shall set forth findings of fact in support of the charges. Decision will be rendered based on the preponderance of evidence presented, and any penalty will be stated in the decision. The Dean of Student Services will administer any penalty.

The accused student may appeal the Committee's decision to the President no later than seven days after the hearing. The appeal to the President must be presented in written form.

The President may review the decision of the Committee and upon review affirm, modify, or reverse the decision. The President will notify the student of the decision in writing within fifteen days of receiving the appeal.

- Collect tests, papers, daily assignments, class notes, and other relevant materials and request a conference with the instructor in question;
- Present the case for grade appeal directly to the instructor;
- If the student is dissatisfied with the decision of the instructor, appeal may then be made to the Chair of the Program.

RESOLVING GRIEVANCES AMONG STUDENTS

The University recognizes that misunderstandings and/or differences of opinion may arise within the context of student life. It is the policy of the University to try to resolve conflict in the fairest, most equitable manner possible, to the satisfaction of all parties involved, with the assurance that the student registering the complaint need not fear any retribution for doing so. Students must take the following steps in the order in which they are outlined:

Step 1. The wronged student should first follow the biblical injunction of Matthew 18:15 to approach the offending party personally, in all sincerity, seeking reconciliation, resolution, and understanding. Biblically and culturally appropriate conflict resolution strategies are strongly encouraged.

Step 2. In the event this first step does not bring about a satisfactory solution to the problem, the offended student should then bring the matter in written form to his/her faculty advisor to help resolve the matter. If the problem is with another student, the offended student's faculty advisor will contact the faculty advisor of the offending student so that both may be involved in trying to reach a resolution. The offender, the offended, and the two-faculty advisor, the advisor should call in an unbiased party from the remainder of the faculty to serve in the place of a second advisor.

Step 3. If a satisfactory resolution still has not been reached after the second step, the offended student may present a written statement of his/her grievance to the Dean of Student Services. The Dean of Student Services, at his discretion, has the option of appointing a committee of three members of the faculty, not to include the two already mentioned faculty advisors, to serve together with the Dean of Student Services to resolve that one situation. The committee will hear presentations and arguments, as it deems appropriate, and decide the outcome of the dispute according to the facts and applicable University policy. The decision of the Dean of Student Services or of the appointed committee will be final.

NOTES

It is understood that both the offended student and the accused offender will be active participants in all necessary steps toward resolution of the grievance. The procedures for conflict resolution are intended to resolve all complaints in the context of a Christian spirit and dialogue. Conflict provides an opportunity for everyone involved to model conflict resolution in a constructive way that exemplifies Christian love, mercy, and peace.

CHRISTIAN SERVICE PROGRAM

The mission of BUA includes this very important statement "... formation of cross-cultural Christian leaders." We are committed to living a Christ-centered lifestyle. A foundational characteristic of a Christian is one of service. Ministry training is maximized when the student is active in a local congregation where the knowledge, skills, values, and principles learned in the classroom can be put to practice. The purpose of the Christian Service Program is to enable students to integrate classroom learning with personal life and practical ministry experience.

Graduation Requirement: Every student pursuing a BA degree must fulfill six unearned credits in the Christian Service Program as a requirement for graduation; transfer students earn one unearned credit for each semester up to six unearned credits. Students pursuing an AA degree must fulfill four unearned credits in the Christian Service Program and be an active member of a local church or a community organization.

Semester Requirement: Every student enrolled must demonstrate one ministry service unit, as certified by the Office of Christian Service Program. A unit is defined as 10-12 ministry services experiences (normally one hour a week) in a semester. The following objectives support the stated purpose for students:

1. Christian Character: The student is to adopt a lifestyle of service in the name of Jesus Christ by meeting human and organizational needs.
2. Cross-Cultural Competence: The student is to learn to serve everyone regardless of diversity or differences.
3. Content Knowledge and Skills: the student is to exhibit classroom knowledge, skills, values, and principles learned in the classroom in service to others.

The Office of the Christian Service Program will seek to verify the claims made by the students. It is therefore necessary to fill out the contact information of the student and the student's ministry or service supervisor.

During the semester, students are required to complete the CSP survey electronic form. The students will be notified by the Christian Service Program Director during the semester to fill out the survey.

STEWARDSHIP POLICIES REGARDING MISSION-SUPPORTED, NON-SPONSORED EVENTS

Mission-supported, non-sponsored events are any events, projects or activities that support and enhance the mission of Baptist University of the Americas but are not officially sponsored by the university through budgeted expenses, classroom assignments, specific requirements of staff job descriptions, or trustee-appointed tasks. BUA encourages these events but reserves the right to grant their final approval and support. The primary events to which these guidelines refer are mission trips initiated and led by students and/or staff.

These student/staff involved in the event maintain 100% of the responsibility for raising the necessary funding required for the project.

Any questions about the above policies may be directed to the Office of Student Services.

CAMPUS SAFETY AND LAW ENFORCEMENT

The University strives to provide a safe learning environment. The University does not operate its own campus police department. The Office of Administration and Finance and other administrators work to ensure the safety and security of students. The University works closely with local police regarding reported crimes at the college.

The University's Campus Watch force does not have arrest powers but alerts the local police and University personnel of activity that may require their attention. Cooperation with Campus Watch is required at all times. Security awareness and crime prevention are encouraged in orientation programs and University Student Housing town hall meetings.

To aid in crime prevention, the University will notify all students and employees through emergency alert systems, email, and social media of any incidents of violent crime.

REPORTING CRIMES AND EMERGENCIES

Students and employees are to promptly report any criminal activity or life-threatening emergencies to the San Antonio Police or Fire Department at 911. A written report of all incidents should be maintained in the Business Office.

ACCESS TO FACILITIES

All students and employees have access to academic and administrative facilities on campus. Access to university student housing is limited to student residents and their guests. Access by University employees is on an "as needed" basis. Defective equipment or other situations affecting security and safety should be reported to the Housing Coordinator and are given high priority and addressed immediately.
